Welcome

66 Welcome to the 8th Beverley Puppet Festival
-largest festival of British puppetry
in the world in one place!

With over 30 companies across four venues plus the streets of Beverley, we present a vast array of puppet performances, with styles and techniques to delight adults and children alike. This was largely made possible by our primary national funder Arts Council England.

This year's theme of 'transformations and journeys' sees ambitious adventures afoot for the festival as we join forces with Moving Parts Arts. This partnership will help the festival grow and will create new opportunities for artistic networking and development, particularly through The Moving Parts Scratch Space, a space to showcase exciting new scratch shows co-hosted by the Indigo Moon Theatre Tent.

We also welcome puppet theatre friends from across the UK, Hungary and the Netherlands who have travelled here to create magical domains for you to enter. We want to thank everyone - our volunteers, funders, sponsors, partners, artists and our audiences for helping the festival on its award-winning journey. It is 13 years since we brought the very first puppet festival to Beverley and by sheer coincidence we open on Friday 13th July, so please join us and help us to celebrate this amazing world of puppetry!

Shows for Adults

SEASIDE TERROR

Odd Doll Puppet Theatre (of Slaithwaite)
MASONIC HALL
FRI 7pm | 60 mins
Adults / Age 10+ | Tickets £12 / £10

Take a trip to the seaside and meet a rather sinister ice cream man who has some very strange stories to tell... Hysterical horrors include, 'Evil Seagulls', 'Zombie Donkeys' and 'Bingo Hairballs'. Stuffed with fun frights and ice cream chills, Seaside Terror is a celebration of the British horror and British holidays of the 1970s. Funny, nostalgic and visually stunning, Odd Doll use their trademark brew of puppetry, mask and specially composed music to fill the stage with nerve-shattering shocks.

THE PARACHUTE / WATCH THE BALL

Stephen Mottram's Animata (of Oxford)
MASONIC HALL
SAT 4pm, 7pm | 55 mins
Adults / Age 10+ | Tickets £12 / £10

The Parachute is a funny, mesmerising tale about youth, love and confronting old age. With little more than an armful of white tipped wands, this master-puppeteer conjures characters from nowhere, plays with the way our brains make sense of things we see and stealthily reels us into a world of movement and illusion.

Watch the Ball sends us scurrying down neural pathways old and new in a short, magical piece about the suspension of disbelief.

Stephen Mottram fuses artistry with neuroscience and demonstrates the magic of puppetry as a story-telling medium.

HENRY

Blind Summit Theatre (of London)
EAST RIDING THEATRE
FRI 9pm | 70 mins
Adults / Age 12+
Tickets £15 / £12

You go into a hospital with a father and you come out with a bin bag, and no father. Master puppeteer Mark Down considers the difference between acting and puppetry, haunted by the recent death of his father, celebrated actor Henry Chessel. In this UK premier, twice Edinburgh Fringe First winners Blind Summit present a masterclass in puppetry, humour and grief.
A co-production with Il Funaro, Pistoia.

EXUVIA

t'Magisch Theaterje (of the Netherlands)
EAST RIDING THEATRE
SAT 9pm | 55 mins
Adults / Age 15+ | Tickets £15 / £12

Exuvia is about the search for our inner possibilities and limitations. A beginning of the creation, bodies in space, a never ending space in which we are not the end of evolution. A search in today's increasingly materialistic society. A world in which we are barely conscious of belonging to a larger entity. In her performance without words, Charlotte will sweep the floor from under your feet, but will catch you once again and, just for a moment, she will make you part of a bigger universe...

FREAKY SEQUIN PUPPET CABARET

Headstrung Puppets (of Liverpool)
MASONIC HALL

SUN 7pm | 60 mins

Adults / Age 16+ | Tickets £12 / £10

Classic cabaret favourites are given a puppet makeover and injected with a good dose of Headstrung's signature silliness. Fast paced and inventive, this show contains plenty of charming puppetry and characterisation, delivered with a cheeky wink and sprinkled with a touch of chaos! The line-up includes... Vitor, strongman, acrobat and fire breather; The Great Throwzini, knife thrower and escapologist, Funky Love Muscle, featuring an energetic dance routine to make you blush, Headliners, gigantic talent on a tiny stage... which megastar will complete our line-up tonight?

RUSTY NAILS & OTHER HEROES

TAMTAM objektentheater
(of the Netherlands)

EAST RIDING THEATRE

SUN 9pm | 70 mins

Adults / Age 7+ | Tickets £15 / £12

An award-winning cross-over between theatre, visual art and animation. A wordless poetic performance in which worthless found objects, picked up from street corners and rescued from the gutter change into actors. Two performers slide old cardboard under a camera and on a large screen a desert appears. A rusty saw plays the sea. Maple seeds become gentle birds and old working gloves, an endless swamp. Watch the movie as it is being created.

WORKSHOPS

MARIONETTE MAKING FOR ADULTS

Sian Kidd (of London)

See website for venue details

FRI 10am-5pm | Age 18+

Max. 10 adult places

Tickets £60

Includes marionette to take away

Led by Sian Kidd from Mirth and Misery, this one day intensive course is a chance to make a unique marionette creature. Using mudlarked bone from the shores of the River Thames, and other natural or found objects, participants will be encouraged to explore finding the life in inanimate objects, while learning the basic principles of marionette construction, manipulation and the importance of weight, tension and gravity within that process.

Participants are encouraged to bring small objects (eg. shells, broken jewellery) that they may wish to incorporate into their puppets.

No prior knowledge of puppetry is necessary but a basic working knowledge of how to use an electric drill is desirable.
